Prayer for Parents

Father, some days we are overjoyed with our children's efforts, values, and decisions; other days we worry so much for their life direction. Some days we feel like award winning parents, other days like parents watching their children drown. We can't swim and no life saving raft exists. Calm our hearts; Quadruple our trust. Remind us that no one loves our children more than you. Give us the wisdom to blend compassion and firmness and may your Spirit guide us to know when to hold tight and when to let go.
